Bible Stories

In July we are putting on a festival with the schools helping us to tell Bible Stories through displays using teddy bears . If anyone has any old teddies they would like to donate we'd be very grateful. Please contact Gaynor Middleton at St. Tyfaelog Church, Pontlottyn. Further information/details will appear nearer to the event.

Have a blessed Easter . Thank you, Gaynor.

An afternoon with Dave Kitchen - poet, broadcaster and author of the new 'Bible in Ten', "an accessible introduction to every book in the Bible in 10 minutes or less". Hosted by St Gwladys' Mothers' Union on Wednesday. 10th April at 2.00pm in the Church Hall, Bargoed CF81 8RP .

All are very welcome!

Many thanks. Sue Hankins

Mark, Evangelist

The Holy Apostle and Evangelist Mark, also known as John Mark (Acts 12:12), was one of the Seventy Apostles, and was also a nephew of Saint Barnabas (June 11). He was born at Jerusalem. The house of his mother Mary adjoined the Garden of Gethsemane.

Reflection.

As I've been driving around the Ministry Area and further afield recently, one thing which has struck me is the trees. Just branches for so long, suddenly there is a little green, then more, followed by flowers of different colours. Life returns. We have reached the end of Lent, and so the Resurrection of Our Lord and Saviour. He was dead, and is now alive - there is new hope, new life, reconciliation with God. In our Ministry Area, I wonder what new things God is bringing to birth this Easter season.

Father Stuart
