MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS

Michaelmas, or The Feast of Michael and All Angels

Michaelmas day is celebrated on 29th September and is associated with St Michael and the coming of autumn. St Michael is one of the principal angelic warriors, protector against the dark of the night and the Archangel who fought against Satan and his evil angels.

One legend from the British Isles holds that when St. Michael defeated Satan, he cast Satan into a particularly prickly blackberry bush — a tale that developed into the practice of making blackberry jam and pies leading up to Michaelmas and avoiding the berries once the feast had passed.

Reflection for September.

O thou who changest not, abide with me.

It is a time of changes. GCSE and A Level results, young people starting GCSEs, A Levels, and degrees.

In the Ministry Area we say thank you to Edward for his service as Lay Chair, and welcome Sue Rivers as our new Lay Chair. At the same time, we bid a brief Farewell to our Reader, Sarah, as she starts ordination training and look forward to welcoming her back in due course with a clerical collar!

At St Gwladys we bid a sad farewell to Miriam, our Church Hall Project Leader. And, personally, I begin married life, thankfully for all the kind messages Caroline and I have received from the Ministry Area. What will God do next in our Ministry Area? Who knows. But the constant is that the unchanging God is with us! Wishing you every blessing,

Fr Stuart
